A monthly publication highlighting the mission of Williams Memorial United Methodist Church

Welcome to Williams

Welcome

Welcome to Williams Memorial United Methodist Church. Our church campus is located at 4000 Moores Lane on the north side of Texarkana. Moores Lane is north of I-30 between Summerhill and Richmond roads.

Worshipping

We invite you to worship with us. Our services are Christ-centered, Biblically grounded, and culturally relevant. The words, music, and means of grace are all designed to empower you to grow in your relationship with God and in ministry to the world.

Sunday services are in the Sanctuary at 8:15 a.m. and 10:30 a.m., and the Xperience Service is in Wesley Hall at 10:30 a.m.

Learning

Sunday school classes for all ages meet at 9:15 a.m. On Sunday evenings at 5:00 p.m. there are programs for your children and youth.

Believing

We enter into the family of Christ through baptism. We recognize God's action in baptisms in other faith communities; you do not have to be re-baptized to belong to Williams. If you have not been baptized, we will be honored to baptize you.

Growing

Our goal is to be like Jesus Christ in this world. We are constantly growing in grace; we have not arrived. We grow through worship, prayer, and study of God's Word. Through large meetings, small groups, and discipleship, we are changed from our old selves to our new selves.

Belonging

We hope you will consider belonging to the Williams' faith community. You can talk with us after church or come by during the week. We would be honored to assist you in belonging at Williams.

Thank You from UMW

A big THANK YOU to all those who made and/or donated items for the United Methodist Womens Mercantile Store, Silent Auction, and Soup Supper on October 5th. Also thank you to all those who came out and supported this annual fund-raiser by purchasing items and meal tickets!

It was a fun evening of fellowship for our church, and we succeeded in raising funds for some very worthwhile UMW missions, as well as for the Williams Pavillion. Thank you again, church! ...United Methodist Women

Williams Travelers

Our Trip to Fredericksburg

by Nellie Thomas

The Williams Travelers just returned from a great trip to Fredericksburg, Texas, highlighted by excellent food, good attractions, pleasant accommodations, and wonderful company. As usual, under the skillful leadership of Sue Camp and Vee Daniels, we all enjoyed a very good trip.

We toured the National Museum of the Pacific War, the Pioneer Museum Complex, the Wildseed Farm, and the LBJ ranch. Along the way, we also managed some shopping and wine tasting.

On the bus ride down and back, we snacked, played a variety of games, snacked, won prizes, watched a movie, snacked, laughed and visited, and snacked.

It was a good group of congenial people, with exceptional leadership, and a good variety of experiences.

Don't miss the next trip we take, or you will regret it. Oh, we shouldn't forget Donnie Camp and Tom Daniels, our exceptional helpers and strong arms. Without them, the trip wouldn't be the same.

Stay Connected

This monthly Insight magazine is a great way to stay connected with all that is going on here at Williams Memorial United Methodist Church. Did you know, however, that there are many more ways to stay informed about what is happening at Williams?

Website - Visit www.welcometowilliams.net to find out more about our church. Click on the "News and Events" page to see the most recent articles and upcoming events happening at Williams. You can also view photos, see the calendar, download forms, listen to sermons and read past issues of the Insight.

Facebook - If you are connecting through facebook, head on over to facebook.com/wmumc and "like" our page. Check in to wmumc in facebook places and let your friends know you are worshipping with us. We post links, scriptures, questions, photos and more in our feed. There are also pages for our Youth Ministry, Williams School, College and Young Adult Ministry, and Prayer Team. Not on facebook? Do not worry. You can still view everything on the page, you just cannot comment or view connected pages.

Text Messages - We recently started sending out updates by text message. This is a great way to stay informed on the go. Just go to welcometowilliams.org/text to sign up. Currently you can join the Youth Ministry list, Williams Reminder list, and Williams Emergency list.

E-news - To get email reminders, sign up for our weekly Williams E-news. This email comes to your inbox with a link to the news section of our weekly bulletin which contains the announcements, prayer list, financial updates, and weekly calendar. We also include links to our recent web posts of news and upcoming events.

We invite you to use one or more of these methods of communication to keep up with all that is going on at Williams. If you have questions or suggestions about how we can communicate better, please let us know.

What's This?

A QR or Quick Response code is a two-dimensional code that is readable by a QR code reader on your smartphone.

They are appearing on magazines, business cards, store products or any place a user needs more information.

We have included a few QR codes in this month's Insight. They may link to the website of the ministry, or more photos.

Williams School

From the Director

As I have mentioned many times, we are so blessed at Williams School. One of the things we are thankful for is to be part of ArtsSmart through Texarkana Regional Arts and Humanities Center. One of our goals at Williams School is to enhance our academic education through the arts. ArtsSmart gives us that advantage.

In September our 3's and 4's enjoyed the Stephens Puppets. They used the beautifully carved wooden puppets to act out the story "Wizard of Oz". All our children and staff were entranced by the performance. October brought us Margaret Clauder who charmed everyone with her animated storytelling skills.

This fall, Kay Thomas, visual artist/consultant will lead a workshop for our staff on using creative art to support and reinforce our curriculum. Like our children, our staff is always learning!

The staff and I wish you many blessings for the upcoming holiday season.

Our Town

Downtown Youth Theater Presents “Our Town”

The Downtown Youth Theater will present Thornton Wilder’s “Our Town” at St. Luke’s United Methodist Church, from November 17-20. The director, Forrest Garrett, chose Our Town for the DYT’s Fall production for its simplicity and beautiful message. “Our Town has a great and powerful message in that it reminds us that every moment, no matter how trivial or mundane, is a precious gift from God.”

Our Town is typically performed with little more than the cast on stage. David Zwirn, a DYT veteran, feels that this presents an interesting challenge. “You truly have to use your imagination. There are no props. There is no set. You really have to use your body and your face to convey all of what you are doing. It’s challenging, but it’s a good discipline to be able to have as an actor.”

The play will be performed in the Fellowship Hall of St. Luke’s, which is a small but friendly space. Action will take place in and among the audience, instead of on a stage from a distance. Howard Coley, a member of the DYT and of St. Luke’s, says “Our Town is a very traditional play, traditionally very popular, and the DYT is bringing something new to it, and that is an intimate experience. The audience won’t be a part of the play, but in another way they are, because the actors will be so close.”

The DYT is an outreach ministry run by Forrest Garrett, who is the pastor at St. Luke’s. “As we do more things like this youth theater here,” says Rev. Garrett, “we can reach out to the community surrounding St. Luke’s, which is a lot of families and children.”

Our Town will be the first official DYT production performed at St. Luke’s, although several members of the DYT were involved in a Holy Week dramatic presentation in the Spring. “This is our first experience of having a theater ministry in the church,” Howard Coley says. “I believe that the church members are excited and hoping to draw more people there to St. Luke’s, and hoping that this will serve as the outreach ministry that it is intended to be.”

The show times and ticket information for Our Town will be announced in the bulletins for the Sanctuary and Xperience services as well as in the Texarkana Gazette, so keep an eye out for your chance to see this production. More information will be available at the St. Luke’s office, (903) 793-3464.

Williams School Job Opening

Williams School is searching for a New Director

Ms. Paula has announced that she will be retiring at the end of this school year.

These children are looking for someone to be the new Williams School Director.

Applicants must have a degree-Education degree preferred-or equivalent experience. They also must be a people person with a true love for children and with a strong desire to carry on the ministry of Williams Memorial United Methodist Church.

Applications can be picked up at the Williams School office.

All Saint's Sunday

November 6 is All Saints Sunday. We remember members of Williams Memorial UMC who have passed away this year. It is a beautiful service to celebrate all the company of saints of God.

If you have someone who should be listed and you have not been contacted by the church, please call Amy Kirk.

Sherri Preaches at Cornerstone

Sunday, November 6 is also when I will preach at Cornerstone Retirement Community. That service is at 4:00 p.m. in the Chapel. This is one of the opportunities on the path of ordination for me.

Mission Trip with the Bishop

In October, I attended the Conference Mission trip with Bishop Janis Riggle Huie, the Cabinet, and all the other ordination candidates.

We worked for three days rebuilding four homes that were damaged in the last hurricane. It was a productive time, and a great chance to know those in clergy leadership in our conference.

Advent Begins

Sunday, November 27 is the beginning of Advent. We celebrate the waiting time to prepare our hearts to receive Jesus Christ anew in our hearts.

Hanging of the Greens

Sunday, December 4, we will celebrate Hanging of the Greens at 5:00 p.m. in the sanctuary.

This is a great family celebration as we prepare our worship spaces and our church family. It will be followed by a light reception in the parlor.

College and Young Adults

Bahamas Bound!

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Matthew 28:19-20

Next August, Williams College and Young Adults will be going on their first international mission trip to Eleuthera, The Bahamas. We will be working with Bahamas Methodist Habitat on the small J shaped island of Eleuthera.

Bahamas Methodist Habitat is a disaster relief and emergency home repair outreach ministry of the Bahamas Conference of the Methodist Church through which volunteers work together to repair and build homes for low-income families in the Bahamas while sharing and receiving the love of Christ.

We will leave Texarkana on August 5, 2012, and will return on August 12, 2012. The cost of the trip is $600 per person at camp plus airfare and passport costs (estimated $1200 per person). This is an expensive trip and is a lot of money for college aged students to sacrifice. This mission is dear to many young people's hearts and with hard work, the support of family, friends and the church and of course God's blessings, the money can be raised for these young people.

Our first fundraiser will be through catalog sales of Equal Exchange products such as free trade coffees, teas, chocolates and other goods. There is also a wide variety of handmade and organic products that will make great Christmas presents and will benefit both Equal Exchange and our trip to the Bahamas. Make sure you track down a young adult and order today! This fundraiser will end on Sunday, November 28th and items should be in by December 15th for delivery and pickup.

If you are a young person or an adult interested in going with us on this mission trip, please contact Kaitlin McMichael at (903) 276-7857 or at kaitlin.mcmichael@gmail.com as soon as possible to get your name on the list. We would love to have you!

Youth Ministries

Giving Thanks

Thanksgiving is almost here, and I am thankful for our youth group along with the rest of our church family. Our youth are always ready and willing to share the good news of Christ outside the walls of our church, and our church family is always ready and willing to support our youth missions.

Our high school Wednesday night Bible study group has just recently finished one of the best small group studies that I have come across; "Change the World" by Mike Slaughter. At the end of our first lesson, the youth were challenged to come up with a dream list of mission projects that they wanted to accomplish this year.

Our youth want to go on a Christmas break UM ARMY mission trip, they would like to volunteer twice a month at the Randy Sams' Outreach Center, build fifteen wheel chair ramps in our community, go on an international mission trip to Haiti in 2013, and do an extreme makeover at our local Randy Sams' Outreach Center. They want to be known as a helpful and dependable youth group. They want to be known as faithful disciples of Christ, and for that I give thanks.

Philippians 1:3-6 says; "I thank my God every time I remember you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ." Amen.

In Christian love;

Tommy Earl Burton

Sundays at Williams

Sunday mornings at 9:15am, all students 7th through 12th grade gather in the youth center for Sunday school. We begin with fellowship, discuss upcoming events, and then begin our lesson for the day.

Sunday nights the youth meet from 5-7 p.m. in the youth center. We begin with fun and fellowship. Then we have worship with our youth band, Broken and Perfect, hear a message, eat supper together, and then break into our small groups.

Wednesdays at Williams

Wednesday nights Senior high youth have Bible study in the youth center from 6-7 p.m. After Bible study, we will head out to Subway, Chic-Fil-A, Sonic, or maybe even What-A-Burger for fellowship and supper! Youth have to provide their own ride and their own money!

"Broken and Perfect" Youth Band

The "Broken and Perfect" Williams Memorial UMC Youth Band leads worship for youth each Sunday, plays in the Xperience service periodically, and leads music for events at other churches and youth events on a regular basis.

The youth band is open to any youth 7-12 grade. We are always looking for instrumentalist and vocalists to be a part of this group. We rehearse Sundays at 3:30 p.m. in the Youth Center.

Adult Ministries

eXtra Years of Zest

Come and join this group of Seniors as they meet to play games, share lunch, and joy in fellowship with each other. "XYZ" meets every second and fourth Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. in the Williams Youth Center. Call Billy Roberts at 903-838-7639 if you would like to join this group.

Williams Book Club

The Williams Book club will read Code Talker, by Chester Nez and Judith Avila for their meeting in November.

Pick up a copy to read and then join in the discussion of this probing memoir of a Navajo Code Talker during World War II on Monday, November 14th at 12:00 p.m. in the Children's Library at Williams.

During December, the Book Club will read Sarah's Key by Tatiana de Rosnay. The Williams Book Club meets on the second Monday of every month. Keep an eye on the Insight to find out what book we're diving into next.

W2LEO

Fine dining and great friends! Widows and Widowers, Let's Eat Out goes out to enjoy dinner at local restaurants every second and fourth Tuesday. These widows and widowers (and married couples as well) love having food and fellowship together.

If you would like to find out where they're headed out to eat this month, call Larry Walker at 903-832-5129 and get your name added to the mailing list.

Williams Travelers

Williams Travelers took their trip to Fredericksburg, Texas during the second week of October. Keep watch on the Insight and bulletin for announcements about the plans for their next trip in Spring, 2012.

United Methodist Women's Groups

Williams Memorial has a very active United Methodist Women's group. Come and join us for our monthly general meeting and luncheon, at 10:00 a.m. on the first Tuesday of every month, and meet some of these wonderful women.

You can also get involved in one of the smaller UMW groups that meets at other times during the month. Here are some examples!

Girls' Night Out: UMW members in their 20s, 30s and 40s looking for Christian fellowship and fun meet every second Wednesday at 6:00 p.m. in room 108.

Sowers and Doers: A mission-based subgroup of the UMW that meets at 10:00 a.m. on the third Tuesday of every month.

Betty Kelly Friendship Circle: meets the second Wednesday of each month at 10:00 a.m. in room 108.

Blessings and Blessing

Community Cafe

After reading Mike Slaughter's book Change the World: Reclaiming the Message and Mission of Jesus, our missions committee began making plans to expand our Society of St Stephen's Food Pantry. We wanted to continue to distribute approximately 20 food boxes a week, but we also wanted to provide a weekly meal, followed by a short worship service. With our missions committee providing the first meal, "Community Cafe" began on Monday October 4th.

As of the writing of this article, we have 8 cooking teams. Our goal would be to have at least 10 or more teams. I would like to thank the following groups who have formed teams; Life Group, New Beginnings, Missions Committee, College and Young Adults, New Horizons, and Joined In Christ. We have also had some families come together to form teams as well.

If your Sunday school class, small group, or family would like to form a team, let me know so we can get you on the schedule. And, if you haven't had the pleasure of joining our guests for fellowship and a meal at our "Community Cafe," then plan on gathering in the parlor on Monday nights from 5:30-6:30pm. See you soon!

Transportation Ministry

We are also in need of volunteers for our transportation ministry. We need help picking up people and groceries. We have at least one member of our congregation who does not drive, and needs a ride to church on Sunday morning. We also need volunteers to pick up our groceries every week for our food pantry. If you know of anyone who is interested in this ministry, please get in touch with me as soon as possible.

Count Your Blessings

I am thankful for my family. Even though I was an only child, I had a huge family and we were really close to each other. I had three cousins that lived in Mt. Pleasant, and six more that usually came in for Thanksgiving. And this was just my first cousins on my mother's side of the family!

Thanksgiving was such a wonderful time of year for me, because my family would all get together and have so much fun! There was always plenty of food, jokes to be told, games to be played, and old family stories to be told and retold.

Over the years things have changed. Slowly, one by one, our family began to move in all sorts of directions. It became harder and harder to get everyone together. It still happened every now and then, but not like it did when I was younger. One thing that has not changed is our love for each other. We are still a close family, and we all still love each other.

What are you thankful for? This Thanksgiving when I count my blessings, my family will be at the top of that list. Don't have a close family? Don't feel loved? Trust me, you are still blessed. God loves you! This Thanksgiving focus on the positive, know that you are loved, and count your blessings!

In Christian love;

Do to others as you would have them do to you. (Luke 6:31 NRSV)

Jesus teaches us in this golden rule to treat others the way we want to be treated. If followed, this basic rule would transform life around this planet.

Try this driving challenge: when changing lanes turn on your blinker long before you want to change lanes. How many people will let you in front of them?

The primary safest way to change lanes on Richmond in front of Starbucks is act like you do not want to change lanes. At the last moment turn on your blinker and move into the space between the two cars next to you.

It seems the rule for driving and much of life is, Keep others from doing to you what you try to do to them. Imagine how driving would change if everyone followed the golden rule.

The golden rule is good, but Jesus surpassed it when he gave a new commandment: Love one another as I have loved you. Jesus laid down a new principle for Christian community. His love for us transcends every other rule for living.

Be a part of the community centered on the life of Jesus Christ. See you in worship this Sunday.
